

Partners and FintechOS Professional Services

Our Professional Services team are working with many partners for augmentation to boost our capacity.

Today, FintechOS is the largest consumer of partner resources, but is changing rapidly, as our ecosystem builds credibility and clients begin to work directly.

We expect our Professional Services revenue and team to grow slowly, whilst our software revenues grow quickly.....constantly expanding the market opportunity for implementation partners.

Thank you!
